

CALL FOR PAPERS

Empirical Management Conference – 8th Edition

We will be running a two-day conference on empirical management, focused on recent empirical research on measuring and exploring management and organizational practices. We are seeking applied and empirical research papers in both the private and the public sector.

The conference takes place at the International Finance Corporation in Washington D.C., on December 14-15, 2022.

Submissions are due by September 20, 2022 at 11:59 p.m. EST. Accepted papers will be notified by September 30, 2022.

Papers will be submitted via the WMS Portal:

<https://worldmanagementsurvey.org/emc2022/>

Attendees are expected to attend the full conference. If for any reason you cannot attend the full conference, please note this in your submission.

Funding for travelling and accommodation costs of up to US$1000 will be provided for presenters.

Organizers: Nick Bloom (Stanford University), Renata Lemos (World Bank), Denis Medvedev (International Finance Corporation), William Maloney (World Bank), Raffaella Sadun (Harvard Business School), Daniela Scur (Cornell University), and John Van Reenen (LSE & MIT).
